I PA

An India Pale Ale is a style of beer that originates from the 1800s, when England colonised India, and the English wanted beer. But the ales that were sent to India, via South Africa, by boat always went off. They began to experiment and saw that by adding more hops and alcohol the beer was preserved for the long journey. IPA as a style was born. This means that IPA's are pale ales with a lot more hops added which means they are usually more bitter and have a lot more complex flavours.

AMBER & RED ALES

Whenever one encounters the term Red Ale, Irish Red or Ruby Beer, it is usually an indication that the beer is a five malted beer. This makes the beer a lot sweeter than an amber ale, it has a thicker in the mouth feel and is normally red or dark red in colour. Amber ale is usually a two malted ale, usually sweeter than a pale ale and brownish red in colour.
